

Brock Bomkamp grew up in Dripping Springs, Texas where he was active in the Dripping Springs UMC youth group and Dripping Springs Younglife and it was at a Younglife Polar Bear retreat his sophomore year when he accepted Christ. Upon graduation he attended Baylor University where he received his Bachelors in Outdoor Recreation. During his time in college he helped lead youth camps for the Southwest Texas Conference UMC with Rusty Freeman. After graduating from Baylor he began working as the youth director at Lutie Watkins Memorial UMC in Llano, Texas where he worked for 3.5 years and then came to Kerrville FUMC. He has two dogs Bear (goldendoodle) and Lady (miniature poodle), enjoys hunting and fishing. Brock is currently working on his Masters of Divinity through online classes at Asbury Theological Seminary in Wilmore, Kentucky.