

Christian Will

My Statement of Faith as a Living Legacy

This statement is to be read to all beneficiaries of my estate and copies sent to all who desire one.

To my family, loved ones and friends,

First, I want my loved ones to know that I place my full confidence and trust in my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, who promised: "I am the resurrection and the life." (John 11:25)

Second, knowing that the cost of sin is eternal separation from God, I believe that Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, suffered and died for the forgiveness of all my sins (Romans 6:23). I neither deserve nor earn His sacrifice but I have received it as a free gift of God, who is so rich in grace and mercy.

Third, I ask all of my loved ones to remember and believe the words of our Savior as found in John 3:16: "For God so loved the world, that He gave His one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life."

Because of these truths, you can have comfort in knowing that I have died and have now joined the Lord in heaven, forever.

I praise God for giving me loving, caring, Christian family and friends. They have been a blessing from God to me. I know that we all share our faith in Jesus as our Savior, we will praise the Lord together, forever in Heaven. I love you and I give you my blessing. I look forward to eternity with you in Heaven.

To my family and friends that have not yet given their lives in full surrender to Jesus Christ: You are very special and have also been a blessing to me. I thank the Lord for you. I urge you to trust in Jesus as your Savior and confess "that, 'Jesus is Lord,' and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead" (Romans 10:9). Also, I pray that you will remain faithful to Him until you are called home to be with the Lord. I love you and look forward to eternity with you in Heaven as you decide to live for Him.

In the name of God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, Amen,
