Give Thanks

November

The Bible tells us to be a thankful people, and for the most part we are. But sometimes we become grumblers, more apt to complain than rejoice, focusing on all the worrisome ways of the world. This series is meant to get us back to where God wants us to be. As His children, loved and saved by the Son, we should look up far more than down. So in keeping with the season, we will focus on some of the many reasons we have to be thankful. Pray for a friend to invite and join us on Sundays as we make thanksgiving our theme for the whole month.

Happy Veterans Day

We want to honor our military personnel by sending Christmas cards to our troops who are stationed overseas. Please stop by the table in the lobby to sign a Christmas card.

Operation Christmas Child

Good news! Great joy! Harbor Trinity is partnering with Samaritan's Purse again to send gift-filled shoeboxes to children all around the world. Shoeboxes can be picked up this Sunday in the foyer and dropped off in the sanctuary on Sundays, or during the week in the church office. Sign up at the Welcome Table if you're interested in helping prepare the shoeboxes for their journey around the world. Contact Brett & Rebecca Doretta at htcawana@att.net for more info.
