Sermon Title: Something for Everyone

Sermon Date: May 14, 2017

Scripture: Titus 2

Speaker: Pastor Rod Randall

1. Read 2:1-8
2. What are some things you do to stay healthy? What unhealthy habits tend to get the best of you?
3. The sound doctrine mentioned in Vs. 1 can also be considered “healthy.” Compare and contrast healthy and unhealthy doctrine you’ve heard over the years.
4. Verse 2 lists what should be true of older men. Why are these qualities so important? Can you share an example of an older man who demonstrated these qualities?
5. Describe an older woman who is “reverent” in the way she lives. What comes to mind?
6. Why might an older woman fall into the trap of slander or alcohol addiction?
7. What is a responsibility of an older woman according to this passage?
8. Do you think the training listed in verses 4-5 is just as important today as it was in Biblical times?
9. Why would adherence to this training prevent or deter criticism of the word of God?
10. Like the other age groups, the young men are to be “self-controlled.” Why is this so important for everyone, and especially for young men?
11. When the day comes when you will be an “older” man or woman, how do you want people to describe you?
12. Would you enjoy mentoring someone younger in the faith? Why or why not?
13. Verses 5 and 8 raise the issue of people being critical of Christians. What should our response be?
14. What specific commands in this chapter do you need to work on?
15. Consider and pray about the mentoring relationship the Lord might have for you.
