Hebrews 13:1-14

13 Keep on loving each other as brothers and sisters. 2 Don't forget to show hospitality to strangers, for some who have done this have entertained angels without realizing it! 3 Remember those in prison, as if you were there yourself. Remember also those being mistreated, as if you felt their pain in your own bodies. 4 Give honor to marriage, and remain faithful to one another in marriage. God will surely judge people who are immoral and those who commit adultery.

5 Don't love money; be satisfied with what you have. For God has said,

"I will never fail you.

I will never abandon you."

6 So we can say with confidence,

"The Lord is my helper,

so I will have no fear.

What can mere people do to me?"

7 Remember your leaders who taught you the word of God. Think of all the good that has come from their lives, and follow the example of their faith.

8 Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever. 9 So do not be attracted by strange, new ideas. Your strength comes from God's grace, not from rules about food, which don't help those who follow them.

10 We have an altar from which the priests in the Tabernacle] have no right to eat. 11 Under the old system, the high priest brought the blood of animals into the Holy Place as a sacrifice for sin, and the bodies of the animals were burned outside the camp. 12 So also Jesus suffered and died outside the city gates to make his people holy by means of his own blood. 13 So let us go out to him, outside the camp, and bear the disgrace he bore. 14 For this world is not our permanent home; we are looking forward to a home yet to come.

Monday, May 31st - Read this week's passage

Today is Memorial Day. A day set aside to remember. What does the writer of Hebrews ask his readers to "remember" in this passage?

Tuesday, June 1st - Read Hebrews 13:1-4

This passage speaks of our relationships here on earth, and our care for our fellow men and women. Why is this paramount as a follower of Christ?

How is marriage to be viewed? How does this relate to the church being the bride of Christ?

Wednesday, June 2nd - Read Hebrews 13:5-6 and Matthew 6:24

What does a love of money prove regarding a person's trust in God?

How is the Lord described in these two verses?

Friday, June 4th - Read Hebrews 13:10-14

What are you looking forward to most about this "home yet to come?"

How does the fact that this world is not our permanent home, change the way you view the troubles that may come your way?

Thursday, June 3rd - Read Hebrews 13:7-9

What does it mean that Jesus Christ is the same, "yesterday, today, and forever," regarding His goodness, character, and love?

Think about those who speak into your life as teachers of the truth of God. Pray for them today and thank God for their ministry.

Saturday, June 5th - Read this week's passage.

This series is entitled, "Jesus is Greater than Everything." Which scriptures in this week's passage speak to this truth.
