The sermon today is a drama with 3 scenes:

(Worship in Meditation) Scene 1: Andy builds an altar to God

Inspired by the OT account of Israel's crossing of the Jordan river, Andy decides to build a similar altar as a visual reminder (monument) to God because of salvation in Christ. His idea has gigantic potential – both for God's glory and Andy's ruin!

(Worship with Children) Scene 2: Andy worships at the altar!

Andy is found praying (shopping list style). We see that the altar has changed spiritual stability in his life; no more need for church, fellowship, accountability, collective worship, ministry or mission to others! Andy seems to be on His own – and not much with God! This insipid change makes his "worship" meaningless!

(Worship in Word) Scene 3: Andy tears down the idol-altar!

Andy is found praying at the altar – but he is clearly recon-nected with God! A penitent heart cries out in confession and gratitude, and for the strength he needs to "do what must be done!"- to destroy the altar he built for God that became an idol!
