Sermon: Third Day God

Easter is the third day, and the third day is the day that life conquers death. The third day is the day that hope triumphs. This week we are going to look at passages that discuss Jesus' resurrection that took place on the third day. As you read these passages, ask yourself—How does the resurrection affect the way I live? What does it mean to walk in the hope and new life of the third day?
