Sermon: God's Throwing a Party and You're Invited

This week we're exploring a parable in which Jesus compares the Kingdom of God to a great party. One of the twists in this story is who ends up making it to the party. Those we most expect to be there miss out, while those we least expect – the last, lame and lost – make it. This week's readings focus on the surprising, upside down nature, of who experiences God's kingdom and who misses out.
