Sermon: The Stress of Work & Finances

Many of us worry about finances and may even juggle multiple jobs, given that we live in such an expensive place. Yet, Jesus commands us not worry about our practical needs, but to seek God's kingdom, trusting that our practical needs will be met. In God's kingdom, money is a tool to foster relationships; and the stronger our relationships are, the more financial peace we have. In God's kingdom, we are called to share our resources with each other, so that each of us has enough.
