Sermon: A Pathway to Personal Growth

We are now in a new series on parenting. This week we want to look at how the process of parenting shapes us – how God uses parenting to sanctify us, to help us grow up spiritually. Parenting is hard. It stretches us. And that’s a good thing because the struggle itself can lead us closer to God if we let it. For those of you who are parents, as you read these daily passages, ask yourself, “How is God using parenting to shape me?”
