Sermon: Parents' Biggest Fears

Being a parent can be stressful. Every parent knows what it's like to worry about their child, including Mary, the mother of Jesus. If being Jesus' mother produced fear and anxiety, then we can expect the same. We can also expect that God will be with us on our journey of parenthood. For our daily scripture readings this week we are going to look at the life of Mary, who serves as a role model of parenting with courage in the midst of fear and uncertainty.
