Sermon: Growing Old (Isn't for Sissies)

According to Pulitzer Prize winning psychologist Ernest Becker: “The idea of death, the fear of it, haunts the human animal like nothing else; it is a mainspring of human activity.” This week we reflect on our fear of getting old and dying. As we do, we remember God’s promise to sustain us, to carry us, to hold us in his arms of grace, when we grow old and even when we die.
