Sermon: Is God....Angry?

What is God like? That is the question we are asking in this new series. And we begin this week by looking at what the Bible means when it talks about God being angry. According to the Old Testament, God is slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. So, yes, God gets angry. But God is not mean. God does not fly off the handle. God offers us forgiveness, as we see on the cross.
