FRIDAY NIGHT, SEPTEMBER 20

This will go down as one of the great nights in our ministry. Patty served her homemade lasagna. We had a first time visitor, a Marine Patty met at our sons' church. His name was Michael and he told Patty it was his first home-cooked meal in a year... he had 5 plates! I preached on Revelation 13 and the works of the Anti-Christ. Afterwards I had a meeting scheduled in my office with Ricardo. 15 minutes later we emerged from the office and Ricardo testified to everyone in the Activity Hall that he had just gotten saved! Then Ashley came in my office. She was saved when she first got in the USMC, but needed Baptism. I scheduled her to be baptized the following Sunday with Ricardo. Then Patty told me another Marine wanted to talk with me. She was not happy with my moral stance on the Bible (She wanted to continue her lifestyle and have God approve of it). I told her the truth, gave her a Bible and instructions to read John and come back to me so we could talk. Then Wendell asked to see me. He is saved and serving but wanted some counsel on a few issues. We connected because both of us have Law Enforcement backgrounds. Then... Nick needed to see me. Ten minutes later Nick was accepting Christ as his Savior as well!. WHEW!! It was a late night and a good night.

BAPTISMS

This month we had the opportunity to baptize three more Marines- The three from Friday Night the 20th. That makes our total for the year 18! Some we have led to the Lord, some were saved at bootcamp, some just needed to get their baptism right after salvation. All have been a blessing. It is humbling to see the Hand of God on our ministry.

VISITING CHURCHES

This month we were busy visiting local church partners, including Benson Grove Baptist, Friendly Community Baptist, Blue Creek Baptist for a Men's Prayer Breakfast/Missions Conference, Brookwood Baptist (to baptize Nick!) and Centerview Baptist.

COUNSELING

I have been busy counseling young Marines this month. Several Coffee shop meetings, after service talks, and numerous text-message Bible studies have kept me busy and blessed. Some had Bible questions, some personal issues they needed advice on. It's always exciting to pour into the life of a young Marine or Sailor.

COPIER

All of the money needed to purchase a new copier came in this month! THANK YOU!

THANK YOU FOR YOUR FAITHFUL SUPPORT OF MILITARY EVANGELISM.

PS - after writing this letter, we were hanging out with the guys and 2 men got saved tonight! Praise God!

The Kitchen Window

Blessings upon blessings. It's Friday evening and I just served 29 Marines + Sailors a delicious Lasagna dinner.

Looking through the Kitchen window, the tables are full of blessings/answers to prayers.

Last night I went to my son's Church and met 3 young men who just got back from deployment and I invited them out to dinner. Two went home on leave and one came to dinner + ate 5 plates of Lasagna + garlic bread! He told me this was his first home cooked meal in over a year.

Tonight someone said that the set up for dinner looks so fancy and when it looks fancy, it means someone cares. Thank you for caring + praying for our troops. Oh friend, we are blessed!
