RING VOWS #1

Officiant:

Now in God's sacred providence He has given us reminding tokens, and following this precedence you have chosen rings. These rings are of the most precious metal, which suggests the most priceless relationship on earth, that of a Christian home. Furthermore, the ring is endless until it is broken by an outside force, which fittingly represents the permanency of the marriage union until it's broken by the outside force of death.

_____, in placing this ring, will you repeat after me these words.

I _____, give you this ring _____, as a token of my love and I pledge you my loyalty and devotion until death separates us.

Officiant:

_____, will you likewise, in placing this ring, repeat after me these words.

I _____, give you this ring _____, as a token of my love and I pledge you my loyalty and devotion until death separates us.

VOWS #2

Richard and Tara, as these rings are designed without an ending, they speak of eternity. May the incorruptible substance of these rings represent a love glowing with increasing luster through the years. May God bless these rings which you give to each other as the sign of your eternal love, trust and faithfulness. May their inscription always be a reminder of the way you feel this day, that only God could love you more than you love each other.

Officiant:

_____ take _____ ring, and as you place it on her finger and bind her to yourself, repeat after me.

_____, my love: With this ring, I thee wed, and say to the world "this is my wife, whom I cherish above all others."

Officiant:

_____, take _____ ring, and as you place it on his finger and bind him to yourself, repeat after me.

_____, my love: With this ring, I thee wed, and say to the world "this is my husband, whom I cherish above all others."

VOWS #4

Officiant:

God in His wisdom often provides us with tokens that remind us of His love and care for us. A rainbow in the sky, the bread and the cup of Communion. You have chosen to follow His example and exchange tokens; signs of your love for one another...you have chosen rings. These rings are of a precious metal, which suggests the pricelessness of your new marital relationship. Furthermore, the rings are endless until broken by an outside force, which fittingly represents the permanency of the marriage union until it's broken by the outside force of death.

_____, in placing this ring, will you repeat after me these words.

I _____, give you this ring _____, as a token of my love and I pledge you my loyalty and devotion until death separates us.

Officiant:

_____, will you likewise, in placing this ring, repeat after me these words.

I _____, give you this ring _____, as a token of my love and I pledge you my loyalty and devotion until death separates us.
