

Living Faith Fellowship and Crosspoint Community Church in Eureka present...

Ministry Is Relationships!

June 10, 2017

8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Developed by Cadre Ministries, this workshop takes you back to the heart of authentic ministry and life change--RELATIONSHIPS! More of a learning experience than a passive workshop, you will encounter these sessions and learnings:

* Session 1 No Relationships = No Ministry;

Know Relationships = Know Ministry

An out of the box learning experience will get us started and explain why relationships are the heart of ministry—and God's mode of operation for impacting and changing the lives of those in our ministry!

* Session 2 God-Powered Relationship Skills

Learn the biblical motivation for building relationships.

Learn the three key relationship skills for connecting with the heart of others.

* Session 3 He That Hath Ears--Let Him Hear!

A listening experience you will never forget--and be able to use in your ministry to build relationships.

* Session 4 How to CLEAN UP Messy Relationships

Learn to use God's relationship cleaning supplies.

In addition, with the $15 registration fee, each participant receives a training manual complete with practical application pages and follow-through assignments--and a bibliography of resources for continued relational development!

Register by contacting Pastor Jon Watts (jon@crosspointcc.org or 309-467-4968).

The training will take place at Crosspoint Community Church. 951 County Rd 1625E, Eureka, IL (2 miles east of Eureka on Route 24).
