Finding Jesus

How many times have you asked your kids to find something in their room, only to hear, “I can’t find it!”? You then walk into the room, look around for a few moments, and there it is — right where it should be. (I realize this might apply to your spouse as well, but we will keep the story about your kids.)

You ask them, “Where did you look?” Usually, you discover they walked into the room, did a quick scan, and gave up. So you follow up with, “Did you look in the drawer where I found it?”

The point is simple: finding things takes effort. Depending on how messy or unorganized a room is, it may take even more effort.

Have you ever wondered why it can be hard for some people — maybe even yourself — to find Jesus?

Some may not be looking very hard. Others might ask, “Should Jesus be hard to find? Is He playing hard to get?”

In Jeremiah 29:13, we read:

“You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart.”

I don’t believe this means Jesus is hiding from us. Rather, it may mean that the messier our lives become, the harder it is for us to see Him. The more distractions we allow in — the more clutter, noise, and busyness — the more difficult it becomes to recognize His presence.

He hasn’t purposely hidden Himself. Sometimes we’ve simply covered Him up with our stuff and our messes.

Marching Toward Easter in Mark

Throughout March, we will continue walking through the Gospel of Mark, “marching” (pun intended!) toward Easter together. Our prayer is that you will see Jesus more clearly.

You may need to put away a few distractions. You may need to look beyond a mess you’ve made. But our hope is that together, we will find Him. (Continued on page 4)

March Sermon Schedule

March 1 ~ Mark 9:1-29 ~ The Transfiguration
March 8 ~ Mark 10:17-31 ~ Finding Jesus Among The Things Of The World
March 15 ~ Mark 13:1-37 ~ Finding Jesus In The End
March 22 ~ Mark 14:12-26 ~ The Lord's Supper
March 29 ~ Mark 11:1-19 ~ The Triumphal Entry (Family Sunday)
April 5 ~ Easter ~ Mark 16:1-8 ~ The Resurrection

Preparing Our Hearts

As we move closer to Easter, we want to invite you to several opportunities designed to help you see Jesus more clearly. Beginning Sunday, March 29, and continuing through the week, we will send out daily devotions to help prepare your heart for the resurrection. These devotions will lead up to special events meant to help us reflect deeply before celebrating Easter Sunday.

Holy Week Events

April 3 ~ Combined Good Friday Service (Adults) & Egg Hunt (Kids)
April 5 ~ Sunrise Service – 7:00 AM
April 5 ~ Sunday School – 9:15 AM
April 5 ~ Worship Service – 10:30 AM

This March, let's not just glance around the room of our lives and say, "I can't find Him." Let's seek Him with all our hearts. We hope you will join us as we find Jesus together.
