Meeting God on the Lord's Day

by Pastor Eric Lynch

These past few weeks my family and I have had the privilege of gathering together with you all for worship. The anticipation for this was huge for us over the summer, and now we are excited to be here with you. A new family to belong to, a church to call our own, and a people to meet God with in the Means of Grace.

It's a beautiful thing to gather with God's people on Sunday mornings, and not just because of the people, but because God tells us that when we gather in his name, he is present. Now, of course we can say he's always present, but there's something different about the gathering of the saints on the Lord's Day. In Hebrews 10 it tells us we can have confidence to enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus. This means that through Christ we now have access to God, which was once only done by going to a physical place (the temple) and offering an animal sacrifice. But now there's no longer a temple on earth, and in fact it says the church is the temple, built together as living stones (Eph. 2:19-22 / 1 Pet. 2:4-5). And the rest of Hebrews 10 helps us understand that as we draw near to God together we are assured of our salvation, cleansed, and encouraged. (Cont. on Pg. 2)

That as we gather and confess the truth of God's Word we aren't just doing so out of a sense of nostalgia, but we are truly entering God's presence. This is why verses 24b - 25 tell us to not neglect meeting together, as is the habit of some. Because Lord's Day worship is not just a time of good fellowship, but is integral for our life in Christ. We see this in Lord's Day 25 of the Catechism that the Holy Spirit works faith in our hearts by the preaching of the Holy Gospel, and confirms it by the use of the holy sacraments.

These are the appointed means for God to do four things; (1) produce faith by the Holy Spirit, (2) to strengthen that faith, (3) to seal God's salvation and sanctification to us, and (4) to be present with his people.

So, when we gather with God's people as God calls us together on Sunday we don't just come into any space, but we enter into the heavenly places. And by entering the heavenly places we receive from God and are being built into the kind of people that are marked by the kingdom. We become gospel people. Then God sends us out filled with gospel hope into a world to share that light. This is what the Means of Grace does for us. This is what gathering for Lord's Day worship does for us as we receive assurance, cleansing, and encouragement.

So, as he gathers us once again this Sunday to praise his name and to hear his Word, let us not forget that he is present and he is building us together into a spiritual house for his glory!

~ Pastor Eric

A Decade in the Making...

By Adam Mackey

For the relaunch of the Focus, I was asked to offer a bit of a reflection as we enter this next season and chapter at First CRC. For eight of the last ten years — seven of them as chair — I've had a seat on our Governing Council, and as I roll off the board in a couple of weeks, there's a lot to reflect on: the highs and lows that have brought us here, and where we're headed next.

A decade ago, First CRC adopted a new governance structure and a reframed sense of our mission as a church; a belief to where God was calling us next. Out of that change came a simple, shared commitment — to make "More and Better Disciples."

As I shared at our congregational meeting recently, we had a plan. But reality was a hillside full of obstacles. The structural changes were met with a variety of opinions, from positive to deep concern. Then in early 2019, immigration challenges sent Pastor Justin back to Canada before the new model had fully taken root. We turned to Pastor Lambert, first as interim, then as lead pastor. Then COVID tested every congregation's capacity to walk together. When Lambert retired in 2022, our nearly four-year search to find a Lead Pastor began. Our staff stepped up to fill the gaps, along with the aid of Pastor Loren, our transitional minister, to keep our ministry moving forward.

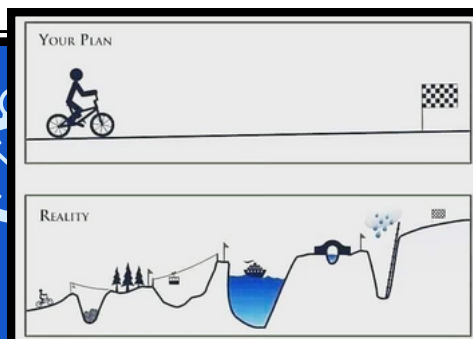

Through each of these challenges, God provided the gift of time — time to grow in patience, time to reflect, time to develop a deeper understanding of who we are as a body, as a family. We tightened our governance documents around authority, staffing, finances, and oversight. We had good, honest, and needed conversations with each other.

That work, and that growth, bore fruit in recently calling Eric Lynch, whose love for preaching God's Word and desire to work collaboratively with our Council and staff have been evident from the start.

To the congregation: thank you. Your prayers, your notes of encouragement, your patience through the uncertainty — it mattered more than you know.

With the changes made, the addition of Eric, and the committed leadership of our elders and deacons...For the first time in ten years, we're positioned to carry out this model at full strength, pursuing our simple mission: to make more and better disciples.

Our plan still won't be a straight line. But I trust we'll keep facing the hillside with wisdom, discernment, and a heart for our unchurched neighbors.

Thoughts from
Pastor Andy

Thank you, First CRC of Hanford, for all the prayers for my family and me over the last few years. As you know, I came here to be the Pastor of Discipleship. Plans changed when Pastor Lambert retired.

Although I have been happy to teach from the pulpit and write our Life Group studies, I have always felt the Lord had other plans for me here—namely, ensuring our church glorifies God by faithfully discipling the men, women, and children of this congregation.

Thankfully, Pastor Eric is here, and our workload is no longer greater than our pastoral staff can handle. Therefore, you can expect a renewed focus from me on the areas under my initial purview: youth and children's ministries, Life Groups, adult education opportunities, and providing pastoral care in coordination with our elders.

I am incredibly excited about what the Lord has in store for us here at First CRC of Hanford. You can expect me to focus on partnering with our ministry leaders and volunteers to ensure they have the tools they need to run their ministries effectively. Look for upcoming improvements to our Life Group studies and service projects!

What else will I be working on? Pastor Eric and I are discussing that right now with our council. In the next few months, we will rewrite my job description to ensure we meet the church's needs while assigning pastoral staff tasks in areas where each of us is most gifted. We are looking closely at all discipleship opportunities. I would love to hear your input concerning what we need, what we are doing well, and what we can do better.

Finally, Life Groups start the week of October 4th. Mark it on your calendars! Life Groups are an essential part of our ministry at First CRC. We connect with God and one another in our groups. The more groups we have, the more opportunities our members, new members, and neighborhood guests will have to enjoy Christian discipleship and fellowship. Please prayerfully consider hosting or facilitating a Life Group, and let me know if you are interested or have any questions!

Worship: A Vision of the Past, Present, & Future

Worship is more than what happens when we gather on Sunday morning. Worship connects us to God's faithfulness in the past, His presence in our lives today, and His promises for the future. At its heart, worship helps us become the people God has called us to be—and equips us to make more and better disciples—by continually forming and reforming us daily.

We worship by remembering the past.

Throughout Scripture, God's people are repeatedly called to remember what God has done. We remember His creation, His faithfulness, His covenant, His provision, and most of all, the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Remembering God's faithfulness strengthens our faith and reminds us that we worship a God who has never abandoned His people.

We worship by responding in the present.

Worship is not simply remembering what God has done; it is responding to who God is and what He is doing in our lives right now. Through prayer, praise, Scripture, confession, communion, service, and obedience, we offer ourselves to God. As Romans 12:1 reminds us, our lives themselves become "a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God." Worship shapes our hearts and transforms how we live.

We worship with hope for the future. Worship also points us toward the day when God will make all things new, and every nation will gather before Him. As we look forward with hope, we recognize that God has given us a mission today: to go and make disciples. Our worship should lead us beyond the sanctuary and into the world, sharing the good news of Jesus and helping others grow in faith.

When we remember the past, respond to God in the present, and look toward His promised future, worship becomes more than an event—it becomes a way of life. And as we worship, we are formed and equipped to fulfill Christ's call to make more and better disciples.

We Read

"And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ."

~ Philippians 1:6

We Confess

Canons of Dort

The Fifth Main Point of Doctrine

Article 3: God's Preservation of the Converted

"Because of these remnants of sin dwelling in them and also because of the temptations of the world and Satan, those who have been converted could not remain standing in this grace if left to their own resources. But God is faithful, mercifully strengthening them in the grace once conferred on them and powerfully preserving them in it to the end."

We Sing

"When I fear my faith will fail

Christ will hold me fast

When the tempter would prevail

He will hold me fast

I could never keep my hold

Through life's fearful path

For my love is often cold

He must hold me fast."

WHY A NEWSLETTER?

Our FOCUS is to keep the members of First CRC informed and engaged with the direction and vision of our church.

Our purpose is always to love and serve our Lord, Jesus Christ, and as a result, to make more and better disciples.

This publication highlights that mission in motion through our past milestones, current ministries, and future plans.

Prayerfully read through these issues to discover where your unique gifts may fit into our shared mission and, if you haven't already, connect with one of the pastors or ministry leaders for information on how to get involved.

Benevolence Ministry

As part of our routine monthly giving following the celebration of Communion, our Benevolence fund exists to help church members and those in our community with short-term emergency aid. With your generous gifts, last month we were able to provide:

Medical Assistance for 3 Families

Funeral Expenses for 2 Families

Financial Hardship (food) for 5 Families

Utility Expenses for 2 Families

Children in foster care have no parental voice. They have been legally separated from their parents because of abuse and neglect, their parents cannot speak for what is in their best interests.

Children in foster care experience frequent disruption and change. It starts when they are removed from their parents, but it doesn't end there.

These changes are often significant and can include where they live and go to school, friendships, social workers, and health care providers.

Children in foster care experience abuse, neglect, and other forms of trauma that impacts their physical and mental health, academic achievement, and more.

LIFE GROUPS AT FIRST CRC

Our Goal is To have every member of our church involved in a Life Group or other similar small group Bible study.

Spiritual growth will flow out of two basic principles:

- Being committed to knowing God and His Word.
- Being committed to building significant Christian relationships.

➡ Life Groups are a key component of First CRC's mission and vision. Here, individuals can connect more deeply with one another in a warm, supportive environment founded securely on the Word of God, the Bible.

➡ Each group is comprised of approximately 8 to 12 people, and are committed to meeting 7 weeks per session, three times a year (Fall, Winter & Spring).

➡ Life Groups are a structured yet casual Bible study that fosters spiritual health, the building of meaningful friendships, and the development of a supportive network with others who seek to be more like Jesus.

Celebrating 40 Years of Faith and Fellowship: The Coffee Break Ministry

This past year Coffee Break celebrated 40 years of existence here at the First Christian Reformed Church of Hanford. In those 40 years, hundreds of women have come to our Social Hall to study from the Bible. They've learned about God and His love for us. Shortly after Daytime Coffee Break began, Elsie Bowlby Barba was asked to start an Evening Coffee Break. They are still meeting on Tuesday evenings and have 13 members with two leaders. In speaking with our first Coffee Break director, Caroline Burris, I learned that in March of 1985, after much prayer and planning, Coffee Break started with 30 ladies in 3 groups with leaders. It was a rousing success and many women from the community, as well as women from our own church attended in those first years. Fast forward to this past year, we have 70 women enrolled in 6 groups with 9 leaders. We have at least 40-50 ladies attending regularly on Wednesday mornings. It's not unusual to run into someone in town and have them say, "Oh, I loved going to your Church's Coffee Break Bible Study!" What a wonderful ministry to be known for!

Daytime Coffee Break is starting again on September 16th for our 41st year! Meanwhile, we are looking for a new director and additional leaders to join this worthwhile effort.

Call Jeanne deHaan or Pastor Andy Hanson if you are interested in getting involved

Library Update

by Jennifer Koelewyn

Greetings from your library! Tommy John died August 16, 2026. He was a baseball pitcher who played in Major League Baseball for 26 seasons. We have the story of his life of faith and baseball in the library for you. Do you want more detailed information on the Heidelberg Catechism? We have the 2 Volume set by Fred H. Klooster. A new to the library book by Francine Rivers should interest you. New books are the first of Summer Rangers series by Susan May Warren and two in the Jeopardy Falls series by Dani Pettrey. We have a selection of books that have been donated that those of you who are looking to dive deeper into Scripture, Theology, and Christian living; they are set aside for the moment for you to review. A few of the titles are written here, and if you are intrigued, just ask for them when you come into the library. I will add more for the next Focus. We have many books of fiction, biographies, Christian Living, and Theology. We have books for young children, young readers, pre-teen and teen series. This is the place to be if you like to read.

Our Only Comfort: A Comprehensive Commentary on the Heidelberg Catechism

(2 Volume Set) by Fred H. Klooster: Examine every inch of the Heidelberg Catechism in this two-volume commentary. You'll rediscover the comfort of the Savior who rules every part of this world. Warmly written and engaging, this great work is the product of Fred Klooster's decades of specialization in catechism research and teaching. Indispensable for preachers, scholars, and anyone else interested in this 16th-century confession.

The Tommy John Story by Tommy John, Joe Musser, and Sally John: Review: This book is a wonderful story of a man's struggle into the big leagues and recovery from a potential career ending surgery. All throughout the story Tommy John reflects on what is happening in light of his Christian faith. In no way is he ashamed of his faith or unwilling to talk about testimony.

The Masterpiece by Francine Rivers: Roman Velasco appears to have everything he could possibly want—money, women, fame. Only Grace Moore, his reluctant, newly hired personal assistant, know how little he truly has. The demons of Roman's past seem to echo through the halls of his empty mansion and out across his breathtaking Topanga Canyon view. Grace is also wrestling with ghosts and secrets of her own. Something so unexpected happens that changes the course of their relationship—and their lives—forever.

New Books Just In!

Over the Edge by Susan May Warren—#1 of A Summer Rangers series: When a woman running from the mob meets a ranger haunted by his past the Grand Canyon's dangers might be the least of their troubles.

Jeopardy Falls series by Dani Pettrey

One Wrong Move: Christian O'Brady was pulled into a life of crime at a young age by his con artist parents. Now making amends for his corrupt past, he has become one of the country's foremost security experts. Andi Forester was a brilliant FBI forensic analyst until one of her colleagues destroyed her career blaming her for mishandling evidence. Christian and Andi are in a race against the clock to catch him, but the perpetrator's game is far from finished, and one wrong move could be the death of them.

Two Seconds Too Late: In the stark but beautiful wilds of northern New Mexico, a couples' retreat at a luxury resort turns into a chilling nightmare when a woman vanishes. Skip tracer Riley MacLeod and private investigator Greyson Chadwick pose as a couple to hunt for clues that might reveal the missing woman's location.

Newly Donated For Study

Recovering Biblical Manhood & Womanhood –A Response to Evangelical Feminism

by John Piper & Wayne Grudem. All who are concerned with the fundamental question of the proper relationship between men and women in home, church, and society will want to read this important book.

Caring Worship by Howard Vanderwell: This book takes a new and fresh look at the worship liturgy.

The Democratization of American Christianity by Nathan O. Hatch: The most powerful, informed, and complex suggestion yet made about the religious, political, and psychi 'opening' of American life from Jefferson to Jackson.

The Heidelberg Catechism by G.I. Williamson: This study guide to the Catechism includes all 129 questions and answers, along with clear exposition and questions for review, further study, and discussion.

Celebration of Discipline–The Path to Spiritual Growth by Richard J. Foster: The best modern book on Christian spirituality. No other book apart from the Bible has been so helpful to me in the nurturing of my inward journey of prayer and spiritual growth ~ Ronald J. Sider, executive director Evangelicals for Social Action.
