THE SHEPHERD'S VOICE: A WORD FOR THE WEEK

When I was a school principal, we wanted to keep expectations simple, so we developed four basic rules: Be Respectful. Be Responsible. Be Safe. Be Kind. I believe these same principles apply to how we interact as members of the church family. In Romans 12:10, Paul writes, "Be devoted to one another in love. Honor one another above yourselves." We must be respectful, recognizing the value of each person; responsible, praying for one another, encouraging one another, and bearing one another's burdens; and safe, creating an en vironment of trust and spiritual protection, guarding against the evil that threatens our church family. Above all, we must be kind. Our interactions should be motivated by agape love—a selfless love that seeks the good of others and is reflected in our words and actions. Four simple principles that are just as important in God's family as they are in a school. ~Andy
