END-OF-YEAR GIVING

We are deeply grateful for you—your faithfulness, generosity, and love for this church family. God has called us together and sends us out as salt and light in the world. Your steady support has sustained our ministry and enabled us to use this facility six days a week for teaching, service, and worship. Our staff continue to serve faithfully and wisely, even as rising costs for insurance and utilities have made meeting expenses more challenging. To help close a $47,000 shortfall, we are designating December 14 as our End-of-Year Special Contribution. Please prayerfully consider a gift above your regular offering to support the work God is doing through this church. Thank you for your trust, partnership, and love. We are honored to serve as your elders.

LIVING ROOM MEETINGS

Those who have not be able to attend a Living Room Meeting, where we are thinking together about the road ahead for 4th and Elm, the Elders are inviting you to the last of these gatherings. Monday, December 1, 6:00 PM in the Parlor. We hope you will join us.
