THE SHEPHERD'S VOICE: A WORD FOR THE WEEK

At times in our lives we become anxious and concerned about the future. Starting college, a new job or having a baby. Ever have that feeling like everything in the future was unknown? For some of us that can cause anxious thoughts. Moses reminds us in Deuteronomy 31:6-8 that we have no reason to fear the unknown. When we put our trust in the Lord, we can find peace knowing that God goes before us in all situations. We may not know the future, but God does and we can trust him. When we find ourselves in those moments of not knowing what lies ahead, spend time in prayer talking to God about what's happening internally. Ask him to comfort you in the fear of the unknown and ask him to help you find peace while being in the present. ~Eddie
