THE SHEPHERD'S VOICE: A WORD FOR THE WEEK

Romans 6 has really gotten hold of me lately for a number of reasons, but mainly it asks me, "What do you seek?" Do I seek the approval of man in practicing righteousness, in prayer, in fasting, or in gaining wealth? I would add-sport success, holding political office, and vacationing. What information do I look for? What do I gain when I focus on those things? Do I truly seek the things that reflect the fruit of the Spirit? Am I paying attention to God's work here on this earth? I am encouraged to "seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you." I am not worthy, but God is faithful!! Praise God!! ~Love you today, Ted
