P.M. Notes

The Redemption of God's People

Judges #24

Judges 16:23-31

1. God's power does not depend on us, but his reputation does

2. God can accomplish his purposes through anyone, but full redemption comes only through Christ
 - a. Samson is not a type of Christ, but an antichrist
 - i. Self-gratification vs. Self-sacrifice

 - ii. Personal vindication vs. God's glory

 - iii. Punishment vs. Redemption

3. God's people must be careful about where our faith rests.

Youth and Family Series:

The Christian as an Athlete and Fan

Wednesday, May 31, you are invited to join us in the youth house at 6:30 (after dinner in the fellowship hall) for our interactive seminar on what it means to participate in, watch, and love sports as a believer. Though our focus will be on sports, the principles we discuss will apply to any hobby, whether it may be video games, drawing, stamp collecting, etc. Whatever it is we enjoy doing, we must ask important questions as believers about the nature of our activities, how do we prevent them from becoming idolatrous? How do we appreciate those who do that activity well without delving into hero worship? How do we handle disappointment when we are unsuccessful? How do we enjoy these different activities to the glory of God? As we have these discussions, my goal is to equip parents to continue these conversations and others like them within your own homes. We also plan to have a lot of fun, as we will engage in games and competitions throughout the night that allow us to immediately put into practice what we are learning. Parents especially are encouraged to attend this event with their students, but all are welcome. Since this is a special seminar, we will not end until 9:00 (but school will be out so what does it matter anyway?). If you have any questions, please ask Tim!

VBS Training

A training session for those working in VBS this summer is scheduled for Sunday, June 4, after the evening worship service. Meet in the Fellowship Hall.

Camp Fund Contributions

There is a need for contributions to our Camp Fund! D3 camp (Middle- and High-Schoolers) is $339.00 and Children's Camp (3rd through 6th graders) is $165.00. We have many that will need scholarships and if anyone can help, it will be greatly appreciated. Make checks to FABC with note "Camp fund" in the memo. Thanks!

Come Ye Sinners

1. Come ye sinners, poor and needy,
Weak and wounded, sick and sore
Jesus ready stands to save you,
Full of pity, love and power.
2. Come ye thirsty, come, and welcome,
God's free bounty glorify;
True belief and true repentance,
Ev'ry grace that brings You nigh.

Chorus:

I will arise and go to Jesus.
He will embrace me in His Arms.
In the arms of my dear Savior,
Oh, there are ten thousand charms.

3. Come, ye weary, heavy laden
Lost and ruined by the fall;
If you tarry 'til you're better
You will never come at all.

Chorus

4. Let not conscience make you linger,
Nor of fitness fondly dream;
All the fitness He requireth
Is to feel your need of Him.

Look and See

Written by Michael Bleecker and Ross King

1. To Him be the glory for all He has done
Praise to the Father who gave us His Son
A ransom for many, He bled and died
Then rose in victory, enthroned on high
2. To Him be the glory in heaven and earth
All of creation is shouting His worth
The saints and the angels all live to proclaim
The wonderful story, the glorious Name

Chorus

Oh look and see our God and celebrate
The power of the cross and the empty grave
And now we're free, let the redeemed lift up your heads
Oh look and see our God

3. To Him be the glory, He's coming again
And all of the sadness will come to an end
Oh what a reunion, the bride and her King
Forever we'll praise Him, forever we'll sing

Chorus

Bridge

Glory, glory, to our God; Glory, glory, to our God;
Glory, glory, to our God; Glory, glory, to our God!

Chorus

Lift up your heads, O gates! And be lifted up, O ancient doors, that the King of glory may come in. Psalm 24:7

The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Corinthians 15:56-5

Look at the heavens, and see; and behold the clouds, which are higher than you. Job 35:5

Worthy are you, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honor and power, for you created all things, and by your will they existed and were created. Revelation

Glory - The public display of the infinite beauty and worth of God. The radiance of his holiness and infinitely worthy and valuable perfections.

He Reigns

1. It's the song of the redeemed rising from the African plain
It's the song of the forgiven drowning out the Amazon rain
The song of Asian believers filled with God's holy fire
It's every tribe every tongue every nation, a love song born of a grateful choir

Chorus

It's all God's children singing,
"Glory, glory, hallelujah,
He reigns (He reigns)!"
It's all God's children singing,
"Glory, glory, hallelujah,
He reigns (He reigns)!"

2. Let it rise above the four winds, caught up in the heavenly sound.
Let praises echo from the towers of cathedrals to the faithful gathered underground.
Of all the songs sung from the dawn of creation, some were meant to persist.
Of all the bells rung from a thousand steeples, none rings truer than this.

Chorus

Bridge

And all the powers of darkness
Tremble at what they've just heard,
'Cause all the powers of darkness
Can't drown out a single word.

Jude Doxology

Cam Huxford

Remember, Jesus brought you out of Egypt.
Remember, He has sought you as His people.
Remember, He has saved you from your sin.
Remember, remember Him.

Remember, Jesus brought you through the Red Sea.
Remember, mighty miracles that you have seen.
Remember, you were slaves and now are free.
Remember, that He is king.

To the only God, our savior, Jesus Christ.
Be glory, honor, power, and dominion.
Before all time, and now, and evermore!

Remember, Jesus reigns above the heavens.
He's coming, He is coming with his kingdom.
Do not forget, He is seated on the throne.
Remember what He has done.

To the only God, our savior, Jesus Christ.
Be glory, honor, power, and dominion.
Before all time, and now, and evermore.
Amen

Good stuff: God's unfailing love for us is an objective fact affirmed in Scripture. It is true whether we believe it or not. Our doubts do not destroy God's love, nor does our faith create it. It originates in the very nature of God, who is love, and it flows to us through our union with His beloved Son. Yes, God loves me, how cool is that!

Bob, based on some thoughts
by Jerry Bridges

Grace: We receive God's grace when we need it. God does not give us all the divine strength we need for the Christian life the day we trust Christ. Psalm 31:19; God's goodness is stored up for those who fear Him. God stores up goodness and grace for our times of adversity. We do not receive it before we need it, but we never receive it too late.

Bob, based on some thoughts by Jerry Bridges

Sooner Count The Stars

1. I could sooner count the stars
Than number all Your ways.
Though I only know in part,
That part exceeds all praise.
As sunlight fills the skies
Your goodness fills my life.
For all Your precious gifts
Receive my gratefulness.
2. I could sooner drink the seas
Than fathom all Your love.
Like a never ceasing stream
Are mercies through Your Son.
The death of Christ alone
Deserves eternal song.
For such a love as His
Receive my gratefulness.

Chorus

No praise is high enough, no thanks is deep enough,
No life is long enough, to tell of all You've done,
No shout is loud enough, no words are strong enough,
No song is sweet enough, to sing Your love.

3. I could sooner turn back time
Than turn Your heart away.
Though the years go fleeting by,
Your mercies never change.
Before You made the sun
Your love was set on us.
For all Your faithfulness
Receive my gratefulness.

Chorus

Five Ways to Engage with News Media

By Paul Conner

Let's consider how we read and listen to the news. Here are five biblically based principles for Christians to keep in mind when engaging with the media.

1. Exercise discernment.

The simple believes everything, but the prudent gives thought to his steps. (Proverbs 14:15)

Think critically about the story you're reading or hearing. What does it reveal about the human condition? Does it reveal anything about God? How would he view the situation?

For all the talk of objectivity, no journalist has freed himself or herself from bias. It's wise, then, to read news from across the ideological spectrum, if you have the time. Though the goal is finding the truth, journalists aren't always able to print or speak the truth, no matter how much time they put into a story.

So be discerning. Breaking news reports are often wrong. Aim to give reporters time to sort through rumors and tips before reacting publicly to a piece of news.

2. Avoid foolish talk.

A fool takes no pleasure in understanding, but only in expressing his opinion. (Proverbs 18:2)

So much foolish talk takes place in the media, especially on social media and cable news. Social media incentivize brevity, which is good for publishing short statements and seeing what people are talking about. But it's a terrible forum for nuanced conversation about complicated issues.

On cable news, much of the focus is on revving up conflict rather than fostering genuine and helpful debate. The secret of cable news is that it's far more scripted than most people think. Producers often approve guests' talking points before they go on the air, and they often pick guests to advance a certain argument. Needless to say, the types of yelling matches that regularly break out are poor substitutes for thoughtful debate.

3. Practice empathy.

Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. (Romans 12:15)

Stories can help us better understand what it's like to live as someone of a different ethnicity, age, or economic status. This can aid us as we pursue greater unity in our churches, seeking to bear each other's burdens and sorrows.

I don't know what it's like to be black in America, but reading stories about past and present oppression against black people has helped me better understand the experience of some of my fellow church members. Reading stories is no substitute for relationships, but they can certainly enhance our relationships.

4. Don't succumb to fear.

The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The LORD is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? (Psalm 27:1)

It's so easy to hear of problems and let fear take over. In those moments, we must rehearse the excellent truths that the Lord, our stronghold, is sovereign; that he appoints leaders; that he hates injustice; that he has our good in mind; that our salvation is intact, even if the worst happens to us.

These truths are precious for the Christian when the news is bad.

5. Enrich your prayers.

Be constant in prayer. (Romans 12:12)

Reporting can help us pray more intelligently for our community and our world. The best way to avoid fear is to cry out to God immediately after reading a troubling story.

Does your church support gospel ministry in a particular part of the world? Find out what's happening there so you can know how to pray more specifically for the missions work you're supporting. Do the same for your city.

Media outlets help me know where to go on dates with my wife, inform me on how to vote, give me reasons to pray, provide conversation points with my neighbors, keep me updated on my career field, help me learn more about creation, offer opportunities to sympathize with others, and humor me. To the extent that journalists seek truth, behave ethically, and report interesting and important stories, praise God for them.

But we must recognize these media sources' limits. They're excellent at demonstrating humanity's depravity, not providing a solution. For that, we must turn to God's Word.

The Bible says the penalty for our depravity is death and hell. Yet the Bible also says Jesus died to cancel that penalty, then rose from the dead and now offers salvation to all who turn from their sin and trust only in him. This is the best news of all.

My Christian friend, don't let the media determine your reality. No matter how crazy the headlines get, your King is still on the throne. Our great hope is that Jesus is coming soon to quiet the mouths of foolish talkers, to remove every reason to fear, and to make all things new.

Just think for a moment: From the very beginning, psychologists have sought to help people with their life problems apart from any awareness of God, Christ, the purpose of God in suffering, and the Holy Scripture. What is shocking is that Christians so often look to their theories about people, their understandings of their problems, and their efforts as the central resource for helping others. We (Christians) often fail to consider that God has revealed His own competing understanding of what is wrong with people, along with startlingly different prescriptions for what people need and how to help them. I'm convinced that God is right, what about you?

Our Graduates

Kathlyne Nicole Creech will attend Georgia Southern University, and plans to major in History, with a minor in Photography. She has been home-schooled from Pre-K thru her Senior year. She likes to spend her time kayaking, painting, drawing, and sewing clothes for children.

Marshall Mills is graduating from the Savannah Arts Academy and plans to study Economics and Political Science at Kennesaw State University.

Anna Wedincamp is graduating from H.V. Jenkins High School, where she is a member of FBLA and the Beta Club. She plans to attend Armstrong State University in the fall to study nursing.

After graduating from home school, Conner Schraeder's immediate plans are to take a test necessary for preparation of entrance into the military. In the meantime, he continues his work as Assistant Manager at Pep Boys.

Missionary of the Week

Pascal & Becky Grenade Mauritius

Pascal and Becky Grenade are missionaries to the island of Mauritius, Pascal's home country. They are raising two young sons, Liam, Adrien, and Ashlen. Ashlen recently had successful surgery on his urinary tract.

Last year, Pascal made a trip to Madagascar to encourage and teach believers, and to make contact with some of the leaders of one of the seminaries there. He is interested in teaching there from time to time in the future. He preached in a few churches while there and taught some modular classes to some of the seminary students.

Becky continues to minister to the ladies in her community, and in June they had a special meeting in their home. They recently had a sleepover for girls. Pascal's sister was able to step in and host this event, as Becky had to stay in the hospital with Ashlen.

Please pray for:

1. Fruit from gospel tracts and chocolate left with hospital staff after Ashlen's surgery. They were also able to be a witness for Christ during Ashlen's hospital stay.
2. They should have a baptism service at their church very soon! An older gentleman, and a 14 year old girl have made professions of faith!
3. Fruit from last year's Madagascar trip, and the possibility of Pascal teaching at the seminary there.
4. Becky's involvement with the ladies' ministry, and with ministry to the younger girls. In their March letter, they write, "My sister on a moment's notice was able to take care of the girls' sleepover, and we continue to pray that these young ladies will be challenged to live their lives for the glory of God. It is our hope that in all aspects of their lives they will desire not to draw attention and praise to themselves but to magnify the Lord. We would appreciate your prayers for the young Christians of Mauritius, as they face pressures to conform and compromise. The community of believers in Mauritius tries to be encouraging to them, but its voice seems marginalized and without much cultural weight. Pray that Christians in Mauritius will be salt and light and will bear witness to our heavenly father."
5. Malini, a Muslim woman Becky has been reaching out to.
6. They are searching for a plot of land to buy on which to build a church.
7. Nearby Madagascar was hit hard by a cyclone in March. Pray for that country.

Weekly Catechism Question

Question #2:

What is the chief end of man?

Answer:

Man’s chief end is to glorify God and to enjoy Him forever.

Scripture:

1 Corinthians 10:31; Psalm 16:11, 37:4,
 73:25, 26; Isaiah 43:7

Comment: “Glorify does not mean make glorious. It means reflect or display as glorious. Other words you could use for “end” are “goal” or “purpose”.

VBS Volunteers Needed!

Our VBS this year, Operation Arctic, will take place June 19 - 23! We are lining up the helpers we need, and we want to put you to work! Talk to Angie Creech, Cindy Wise, or Janice Donaldson, and let them know where you would like to serve. Note that if you will be working directly with children, you must have taken the Reducing the Risk class. Thanks in advance for your prayers and help!

In prayer we tell God nothing he does not already know. Instead, our prayers acknowledge our awareness of something he has always known and that we regularly forget--that we need him and cannot live without him.
