GREETING & ANNOUNCEMENTS

CALL to WORSHIP

L: God is present to us,

P: When we are present to one another.

L: Though we are many, we are one body in Christ, joined together to one another.

P: We will bear one another’s burdens, for in so doing we give witness to our faith and to the love that binds us together.

HYMN “Children of the Heavenly Father” UMH 141

OPENING PRAYER of BROKENNESS

O God, you have created us to be one body together, salt and light to a world that too often works to divide rather than seek the communion you call us into. But through fear or pride we often deny ourselves this fellowship by closing our hearts to others, refusing to admit our dependence on or debt of gratitude to them. Afraid of appearing weak, we have been unwilling to share our struggles and needs, choosing instead to wallow alone in self-pity. Enable us, Lord, to create in our midst a community that truly bears one another’s burdens that our joy may be made complete. In Christ’s name we pray. Amen.

The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Help us to live our lives in ways that glorify you, O Lord. In and through these offerings may we be a blessing in someone else’s life today, that others might experience the freedom found in knowing you. Amen.
