

Dear Friends and Family,

I'm so excited to share with you this amazing opportunity I have been given! Along with a group of 6 others, I will be traveling to Argentina for a mission trip. We will leave on June 15th and get back on June 24th. Our missions work will take place at an orphanage in Corral de Bustos, which is in the middle of Argentina in the province of Cordoba. We will be loving on the staff and children there, and doing whatever they need us to do.

Argentina

June 15 - 24, 2016

This is my second mission trip. My first mission trip was to Lost Creek, Kentucky last summer. My group and I volunteered at Riverside Christian School doing service work for the school and the community. We met some really amazing people, and it felt so good to spread love by giving my time to bless others. Ever since then, I have felt lead to missions work and have the strong desire to spread the love of God, no matter where it may be.

God's love is truly unfailing, and I think we as Christians are responsible for spreading that love from the highest mountain to the deepest valley, and everywhere in between. "Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always preserves." -1 Corinthians 13:4-7

I would like to ask you for your partnership. The cost for this trip is $2,400. This includes my flights, lodging, and meal costs. Any financial partnership I receive would help tremendously and I would be so grateful. If you feel lead to support me financially, the information on how to give is on the cover letter. Even more importantly, my team and I are in need of prayer partners. We need prayer for safety, health, and financial provisions. I'm trying to get as many prayer partners as possible. I've attached a list of specific things to keep in your prayers if you choose. I have no doubt that God will provide and make this trip an unforgettable experience.

If you are interested in keeping up with this journey, I will be posting updates and pictures on my social media accounts, and I can also send out emails if anyone is interested. Thank you so much for taking time out of your busy lives to read this letter and possibly partner with me!

Spreading the Love of God,
