

University Lutheran Church & Student Center is an inclusive ELCA congregation with a strong sacred music tradition seeking a part-time Director of Music.

We seek a creative, educated liturgical musician to support, build, and grow our congregation's thriving music program. The Director of Music will be responsible for all aspects of a diverse music program including worship planning in conjunction with the Pastor, as well as recruitment, communications, and development of programming for all ages.

The successful candidate will demonstrate strong musical, administrative, and leadership skills; openness to a variety of music genres; an appreciation and respect for the gifts of music and musicians that have sustained this congregation for over 50 years (organ, band, choirs, vocal and instrumental ensembles); a willing boldness to explore new liturgical and musical concepts; an ability to work well and collaboratively with the Pastor, Assistant Director of Music, and lay musicians; comfort with people of all ages and walks of life; good communication skills; and a commitment to liturgical excellence within the Lutheran tradition.

Qualifications:

Bachelor's Degree in Organ and/or Church Music; Master's Degree in Music or equivalent experience preferred; strong proficiencies in organ, piano, harpsichord, choral conducting; experience in leading or fostering small and large vocal/instrumental ensembles; and demonstrated effectiveness in congregational music leadership.

Compensation:

- annual salary commensurate with education and experience
- four weeks of annual vacation
- yearly reevaluation of salary

Applications:

Interested applicants must submit all application materials electronically (including cover letter, CV, and references) to the Revd Joseph Summerville III, Pastor, ULCS, at ulcscpastor@gmail.com by June 25th, 2018.

In Christ,

The Revd. Joseph E. Summerville III
Pastor, University Lutheran Church and Student Center
