BEAMS Prayer Letter – June 2026

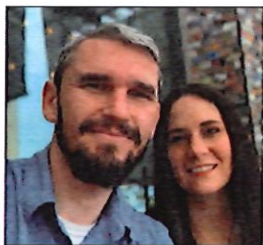

Dr. Arthur & Sis. Rhonda Lockard

Dear Faithful supporters of the BEAMS Ministry,

Greetings in the lovely name of Jesus. I pray that this letter finds you enjoying the blessing of salvation.

The month of May was a busy month here at the BEAMS office. The audit of 2025 has been completed and all necessary paperwork sent to the state of Mississippi. The May June issue of the BEAMS newsletter was prepared for mailing with the help of volunteers from Faith Baptist Church and Bible Baptist Church.

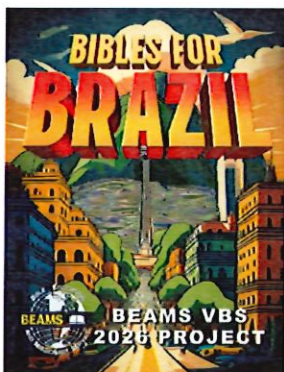

We were visited by two missionaries that distribute BEAMS Bibles. Bro. Jack Henderson and Bro. Jonathan Anderson. Bro. Henderson brought his dear wife along with Pastor Isrial and wife Maribel. We provided them with two pallets of Spanish Bibles to take to pastors in remote places of Mexico and South America. Bro. Anderson and family stayed in the BEAMS mission trailer. He has received BEAMS Bibles for years. God has given him a ministry to help churches in Mexico and in America in the area of missions and training men for ministry.

We are currently, working on several special projects. We are preparing two pallets of French Bibles to be shipped to Benin. Twenty-five cases of Spanish Bibles are going to Guatemala.

We received another request for English Bibles to be placed in a container to Uganda. BEAMS could not supply these Bibles without your faithful giving to the Lord through BEAMS.

It is summer time! We are looking forward to the youth groups and college tour groups that will visit. If you are in Gulfport, please stop by and see the marvelous works of God at the BEAMS Headquarters.

Until next month, may the Lord bless and keep you.

Dr. Arthur J. Lockard, Jr.
