

What are Fellowship Home Groups?

Purpose: To foster a greater devotion to the Word, Fellowship, The Gospel, and Prayer TOGETHER

These aren't study groups, support groups, or counseling. They are intended to cultivate deeper spiritual fellowship together as they are informed by Scripture and pursued through prayer, study, and interaction.

Acts 2:42, 46 – And they devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers. ⁴⁶ ...breaking bread in their homes...

What is Involved in Hosting a Group:

- Open your home every other week this Summer (four weeks total) to a group of up to 20 fellow church members
- The number of people in your group is up to you, with a maximum of 20
- Standard day/time is Sunday afternoon, from 5:00-7:00.
Individual groups can adjust this to what works best for the group.
- Host Home provides drinks, plates, & silverware (unless otherwise arranged by the group)
- There will be a Group Leader assigned to each Host Home unless the Host also wants to lead.
- Some homes will have children - each group arranges its own child care scenario. This is the responsibility of the group, not the host by themselves

Home Group Vision Meeting:

Sunday, June 14, 5:00, Fellowship Hall

All of those who are participating, or who might want to participate, are invited to come and hear the vision & plan for Home Groups, sign up for a group, and plan their first meeting together.

We'll have an ice cream fellowship following the meeting.

What a Typical Home Group Meeting looks like:

5:00 People arrive & have snacks & fellowship (30-45 minutes)

5:45 Bible Study & discussion: 30-45 minutes

6:15 Prayer Requests and praying for one another 30 minutes.

7:00 Head to your car. You don't have to go home, but you can't stay here.

We'll diligently remind people to honor the "ending" time so that the host families can wrap up the day and prepare for the coming week.

This schedule is absolutely flexible based on the needs, desires, and schedules of each group.

It can be longer, start earlier, or even be on another day (not Wednesday please) if that works best for everyone in the group.
