Good Friday Meditation Communion Service

WE GATHER

Come and stay as long as you like. There is not time-limit. This is an opportunity to pull away from the pace of this world, and experience the Lord ministering to you though contemplating the finished work of Jesus Christ for you.

SO take a deep breath... and REST in His dying love!

WE CONSIDER

Consider some (or all) of these 50 Reasons Jesus Suffered and Died. As the scriptures are displayed, consider each aspect of the work of Jesus Christ for you. You are loved! With NO strings attached!

WE SING

As the songs are playing in the background, and you happen to know them, feel free to sing them softly or in your heart, in grateful worship.

WE EAT

The communion elements are available for you to partake of as you feel led, when you desire and wish to do so. Go up, take the Bread & the Cup back to your seat, and receive the good news of Jesus Christ in holy communion.

WE PRAY

This is a time for quiet, prayerful worship & contemplation. Also, as you may be led by the Spirit, quietly feel free to pray with and for one another.

WE GO INTO THE WORLD

As you depart, may you be conscious of the Presence of the Lord, and go forth in the power of the Holy Spirit. May the Lord minister to you, and through you, to those people around you and those the Lord puts into your path.

May you leave this time, knowing you are loved, accepted, forgiven and declared righteous in the sight of God, all because Jesus lived, died and rose again for you!

Resurrection Easter Sunday

---

Please join us together again on Sunday, at 10 AM, as we are gathered to hear the greatest news that one can ever hear: A dead man walked out of the grave!

Good Friday Quote

“When the world saw God at His weakest moment, God was performing His greatest act of redemption.”

- Michael Horton
