Mini Devotional ~ Matthew 5:4

“Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.”

No one can appreciate rain more than someone who has lived in the desert. No one can value food more than one who has truly starved. And no one can know God as their comforter like someone who desperately needs comfort.

Unfortunately, death, decay, and disappointment are a part of this world. But even in our sorrow and suffering, God stands ready to comfort us – in unique and meaningful ways that only He can. The Holy Spirit is often called the “Comforter,” as well as “Helper... Counselor...or Advocate.” But regardless of when He is called as such, He is always all of these.

Even in our grief, He is a God who always has our best in mind. Have you opened your heart to his comfort? Remember, Jesus promised that you will be comforted. He is always good, and His word is always true. He is always faithful, and He is right here, ready to help.

Invite someone to church this week

Birthdays:

Didi Schoenhofer – June 11
Susan Sloan – June 12

Verse to meditate on this week:

“You therefore must endure hardship as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. No one engaged in warfare entangles himself with the affairs of this life, that he may please him who enlisted him as a soldier.”

2 Timothy 2:3-4 NKJV
