Questions to Ponder

1. What is a “what if” you tend to worry?

2. When you’re stressed, do you tend to worry quietly or talk it out with someone?

3. What do you find helps you worship when you are tempted to worry?
(Music, prayer, Bible reading, etc.)

4. Why do you think Habakkuk spent so much time rehearsing God’s past works in verses 3–15? When has remembering God’s past faithfulness helped calm your fears?

5. Where do you usually look for joy? How can you practice rejoicing in the Lord (v. 18), rather than in His gifts, when circumstances feel bleak?

6. What’s something you’re grateful for right now that could inspire you to worship God?
