

AWANA at home - November 18

Today's Theme: Camo Survival Night - Wear camo in your video while saying your verses

1. [together] Say a prayer (talk to God)
 - A. Praise God for his love and thank Him for our time together
 - B. Ask God to help you understand His Word
2. [together] Ask each other "how was your week?"
3. [together] Listen to some of your favorite praise songs - Sing, dance and worship God!
4. [together] Complete the assigned section together

 Big Truth: God is Great! (Put hands up like you are showing off our muscles). God is good. Read I Samuel 16:11-12. Talk about the goodness of God and how He can see within us what we need even before we know it. Who would have thought a shepherd would be a king?

5. [students] Recite verses to your parents while they video you, and don't forget to say the review verse also. Note to parents - they need to say the reference & you can give them 2 small hints if needed.*
6. [parents] Verify that your child has answered all questions and filled in all the blank spaces then sign & date where it says "leader signature" at the end of the section.
7. [parents] Take a picture of the signed completed section page and send it to Judy Morton, the club commander, along with the video of them saying the verses.
8. [together] Pray (talk to God) and ask for help to apply what you have learned to your life.

Announcements: Work on memorizing the verses in the next section of your book.

Next Wednesday: Thanksgiving break.
