Meet Our Facilitators

Linda Craymer
I reside in Hatboro, PA, with my husband, John. We have two grown children, Samuel and Joylin. Samuel is in the Air Force, stationed in Fairbanks, AK. He and his wife, Kate have our three grand-children: Genesis, Zion and Lydia. Joylin is married to Hunter and they live in Orange, VA. I hold degrees in Bible and Church Music from Cairn University. As a member of OEPC, I play in a bell choir, teach Women's Bible studies and have been involved with VBS as a director and chapel leader. I've been a speaker at a prayer breakfast and other church retreats. In my spare time, I love baking bread, making desserts, playing board and card games, doing jigsaw puzzles, taking walks, going camping in my teardrop camper, reading and studying God's Word.

Tammy Farrell
Trust in the Lord with all your heart, don't lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him and He will direct your paths. (Prov. 3:5&6)
A life-verse of my dad's, I continue learning THE lean! Grateful to have grown up seeing God-trusting and God-loving exemplified. Now at 65 years, continuing the Faith journey of trusting the Lord with ALL my heart, ALL the way Home. What a blessing in the journey, to co-share with sisters when challenges come...how, what to do, and what to wear (of course ladies, what do we put on?) as we Trust and Lean. The Armor of God is available to 'wear' and protect us every day. Like plugging in to charge—equipping us with THE most powerful artillery.

Our Retreat Theme

The Armor of God by Priscilla Shirer

All day, every day, an invisible war rages around you — unseen, unheard, yet felt throughout every aspect of your life. A devoted, devilish enemy seeks to wreak havoc on everything that matters to you. But his battle plan depends on catching you unaware and unarmed. If you're tired of being pushed around and caught with your guard down, this study is for you.

Our Venue

We are heading back to Lancaster County to the lovely Bird-in-Hand Family Inn. It offers amenities such as indoor swimming pools, tennis and basketball courts, and recreational facilities. The Inn is also near many Lancaster County attractions such as Bird-in-Hand Farmer's Market (walking distance), Kitchen Kettle Village, and the shopping outlets.
