CAMP OMEGA SUMMER 2018 CAMP GUIDES! The most valuable gift you can give a child is the opportunity to develop independence, self-worth, leadership, responsibility, and most of all, life-long faith in Jesus Christ. At Camp Omega, children develop a stronger sense of self, others and God; they learn how to navigate the world successfully; they learn resiliency; and they learn the value of healthy, Christ-centered relationships! 2018 Camp Omega Camp Guides are available on the Children's stand in the narthex. Visit www.campomega.org or call 507-685-4266 for more information.

YEA, THOUGH I WALK: A FORUM ON HOPE IN A CULTURE OF DEATH -- Sat, April 28, 9am –12pm, St. John's Lutheran Church of Rich Valley, 14385 Blaine Ave, E, Rosemount. Everywhere we look we find death all around us: abortion, suicide, school shootings, other mass violence, and even physician assisted suicide. In order to help us find our bearings and live as those through whom the light of Christ shines in this darkness, you are cordially invited to this half-day forum featuring two speakers. Rev. Dr. Lucas Woodford will present on the topic, "With Faith, Hope, and Love: Speaking Life into a Culture of Death," which will address what lurks behind this culture of death and how to contrast it with the life that we have in Christ. Rev. Fred Hinz will present "Remembering Hope at Life's End," which will address efforts to legalize Physician Assisted Suicide.

Prayer Team: "Yet what we offer is nothing compared to the glory He will give us later."

APRIL 1: EASTER. John 20:1 – "Now on the first day of the week ..." All is made new by the Resurrection of Jesus! Even the day of worship has transitioned from the Old Testament's Saturday Sabbath to the Lord's Day of the New Testament. For the Lord has made all things new: He has begun a new week for a new creation in rising from the dead as the New Adam. We are also made new in Him – a new heart, a new life, new desires, a new outlook toward God: all this comes from our Risen Lord's grace.
