Please refer to the General Council Bylaws, Article VII, Section 10, paragraph f, pertaining to support of the national office. Contact your district office for information regarding their financial policies for ministers.)

44. The principle of voluntary cooperation upon which The General Council of the Assemblies of God is based involves the following:

By "voluntary" it is meant that, upon learning the principles, doctrines, and practices of the Assemblies of God, and by seeing the benefits one could derive from being associated with such an organization, persons of their own free choice decide to become members, thus subscribing to all that for which the organization stands.

By "cooperation" it is meant that, to the best of one's ability, he or she will comply with all decisions setting forth and defining duties and responsibilities incumbent upon members of the organization, which include active participation, and will respect the will of the majority expressed through democratic processes as long as he or she remains a member.

Hence, "voluntary cooperation" means that one of his or her own free will decides to become a cooperating member of the Assemblies of God, this cooperation and participation being obligatory and not optional.

Do you wholeheartedly subscribe to the previous statement concerning voluntary cooperative fellowship? yes no
