Your Place At The Table: A Lutheran Communion Course

What do Lutherans believe about the Lord's Supper? What is Jesus Christ up to when we take the Sacrament of the Altar? Why do we celebrate Communion so often? Ask hard questions like this and uncover some answers with Pastor Aaron on Sunday, October 18th from 2:30pm to 4:30pm in the fellowship hall. This course will serve both as a First Communion class for our 5th Graders as well as a refresher course for anyone in the congregation to sit through!

Odds and Ends

- We are always looking for new readers to bring God's Word to our ears during worship! Afraid to get up and speak in front of the congregation from the lectern? Don't be. We will bring you a handheld microphone and you can read from your pew! Pastor Aaron will send you the readings a week in advance so you have plenty of time to practice.
- The congregation is asked to remember that the pews in the back of the Sanctuary are reserved for families with small children. Please take this into consideration when choosing where to sit on Sunday mornings.
- Every Sunday night Pastor Aaron sends out a weekly email with the morning's bulletin attached, as well as the weekly Prayer Bulletin and a reminder of things happening at church during the week. Not getting that email? Get ahold of Pastor Aaron and he will add you to the list!
