God promised Abraham that his descendants would be as numerous as the stars but Abraham needed to be patient
