

Jack Vorsheim - "I believe in God, the Father. I believe in the Holy Ghost. I believe in God's Son, Jesus. I believe that Jesus died for our sins. I believe that we have been forgiven of our bad deeds. I believe that I will one day walk through the gates of heaven, due to my trust in Jesus. I don't just 'believe' in him, but I 'know' in him and his power over me, over everyone, and over everything ... for I 'know' that he is real."

Gillian Warner - "I appreciate every time when God has sheltered me from catastrophic circumstances to me physically, mentally, socially or emotionally. I hope to continue growing in my relationship with God to further understand all he does for each and every one of us. I believe Jesus is my Lord and Savior, and I will participate in the church to further prove my commitment to him."

Matthew Eckert - "Jesus is my Lord, and on this journey to discover this I met a lot of new friends and became closer to the ones I already knew. These friends will hopefully join me in committing to Jesus and a faithful life In reality I'll miss attending this class and hopefully I don't lose the bonds with my teachers, friends, and God that I've very carefully strengthened along the way. I will continue to serve in the church, hopefully becoming a volunteer or even a student leader in the future."

Catherine Flynn - "To me, the Savior of my soul, the Son of God, the one who called himself God in human form, is a person with the name of Jesus Christ A time when I felt very close to God was when I went on the high school retreat for Seekers. There, I connected more with him than I have before. I have never been close to God until one night during the retreat where I found him in my heart and realized who he was to me."

Jenna Hansen - "I believe that Jesus Christ was and is the Son of Man, and my Lord and Savior. I wholeheartedly intend to follow Him, and obey Him through all things. To me, he is the one who forgives all and loves me relentlessly, no matter what. I know that God will always forgive me, and the reason is that he loves me endlessly."

Jack Higgins - "I believe that Jesus Christ was and is our Savior and I do intend on following him. I trust in Him alone for my salvation and forgiveness of sin. By definition, he is the Messiah sent by God to save the human race from sin, but to Christians he is much more than that. Jesus is someone who we can all look up to, and pray to in times of need or distress."

David Hinkle - "I know that Jesus is my Lord and Savior. I trust in him alone for my salvation and forgiveness of sins. I especially like the viewpoint of God as our shepherd. Psalm 79:13 says, 'Then we your people, the sheep of your pasture, will praise you forever.' I like this because it makes perfect sense to me, of why we need to worship and praise him. We, as sheep, are raised up and cared for by God."

Jason Hinkle - "Going to church and being a Christian was my parent's decision until now. Now I am welcoming Jesus into my heart, knowing that God has a plan for me and I want to fulfill it. I haven't yet found out what God's plan is for me, but I hope to find out as I build a stronger relationship with him. I believe that Jesus Christ was and is the Savior and Lord of all things. The reason God forgives me is his great love and compassion for me. God's grace is a gift that we do not deserve, but we are still given."

Michael Herlihy - "Jesus is my one and only Lord and shall remain that way for the rest of my life. I only trust in him for my salvation. He is the only way I can be forgiven of my sins. I will try to follow him for the rest of my life in this unstable world. It can be hard nowadays, but I'll attempt to be a disciple of Jesus to tell people about God's power and love."

Megan Ruby - "I believe that Jesus Christ is my Lord and Savior. Jesus is my Savior because he forgives me each time I sin, and loves me no matter what. I personally have realized that I am not perfect and fall short of his word, but by his grace he redeems me. In sixth grade, I went on my first retreat where I was able to experience his love for one of the very first times. After going through so much, so early on in my life, I had this huge weight on my shoulders. God relieved all my doubts and worries and made me feel like a new person."

Michael Taylor - "Jesus is my Lord and Savior. 1 John 1:9 reads 'If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness.' The Lord will forgive me and make my heart pure if I ask for forgiveness. The Lord forgives me because of Jesus' death on the cross. The Lord doesn't see the sins I commit and even though I am not worthy, and can never be worthy, because of his grace I am forgiven."
