STATEMENT OF FAITH QUOTES 2019

AMANDA ALBOUM – “To me, God will always be there to listen and to help. He is someone who will guide you and who will lead you onto the right path. God created animals, He created people, He created life. Jesus is my Lord and I want to follow Him. Jesus is my Savior and I want and need His forgiveness and strength as I face the future challenges life presents me with.”

CARSON FREY – “...God always has a plan for me even if it may not seem that way from my eyes. I need to trust him and know that he is always right. Moving forward in my life, I will trust Jesus as my Lord and Savior, I will follow him, believe and worship him. I will grow my relationship with him by doing mission trips and services such as the one I will be going on this summer to Honduras.”

HARRY HAGERMAN – “I do believe in Jesus as my Lord and Savior, and I will for the rest of my life. But committing my life to developing an amazing relationship with him is difficult because I’m young and have no idea what I’m doing even next year for school. I do believe that I will continue to go to church when I’m an adult, but for now I need a break because I’ve been having to do something every morning since the beginning of school, whether it be going to school, church, or sports.”

KATIE HIGGINS – “Lord, when there’s loss of hope and fear, you’re the light switch I turn on to make the room brighter. Even if I want to figure it out on my own. My journey to learning more about you is far from over. I want to thank you, Lord, for setting me free from my sins and everything else that burdened me. John 1:5 says ‘The light shines in the darkness and the darkness has not overcome it.’”

ERIN LINDRUD – “I know that as I grow older, I want my faith to grow with me as I explore my relationship with God, and how it impacts my life every day. I have witnessed God’s role in my life as he has led me to be who I am today, and helped to guide me through the toughest times. I can easily say that I am grateful for everything Christ has done for me, and that I am prepared to continue serving Christ as my Lord and Savior.”

MAURA MEDENILLA – “After confirming my faith, I am finally able to see the true meaning of John 3:16. It’s because of God’s love for His children that He sacrificed His own son for us to be saved, not because of the amount of times we pray to Him, how much of the Bible we can read, or the number of Sundays we go to church. It’s truly because He loves His children. He offers us eternal life for free, and all we have to do is believe and trust in Him.”

JACK STINSON – “Even in times of hardship, I have accepted and trusted Jesus Christ as my Savior. As Psalm 62:6 states, “Truly he is my rock and my salvation; he is my fortress, I will not be shaken.” At certain times in my life, I have had some doubts about God and Jesus, resulting from certain hardships I had been going through, yet I do pray and He does help me get through those hard times. These are the main reasons why I have kept faith in God and Jesus all these years, and I don’t soon plan to give up on that.”

SAMANTHA STRICKLAND – “After all God has done for us, and still does for us, we often place our faith in the world instead of him. We don’t put our complete trust in him or follow his word, as he’s taught us to do. But despite this, he remains forgiving, loving, merciful, and covers us in his grace. I know that God has a plan for each and every one of us, and I aim to trust him throughout my life, even when the obstacles of life come my way.”

CHELSEA TANCREDI – “I am very grateful to have grown up in a Christian home, where I have been encouraged every step of the way. This church and my church family has been such a gift to me that I didn’t really understand or fully appreciate until now. Thank you to all the teachers and members of this church that have cared for and invested in me since I was an infant. In an effort to give back what has been given to me, I feel called to serve my church by being an active member and helping with the children’s ministry. Most of all, I thank Jesus Christ, my Lord and Savior for dying on a cross to take away my sins so that I may have life.”
