SPIRIT CHECK

Please silence your cell phones.

Good morning and welcome to worship! Today, please take notice of new paraments on our altar. Here is a description of the meaning behind the seamstress' design:

Lent is a time of contemplation and reflection, thus, these pieces are intended to encourage reflection and meditation. They contain a free-form cross shape surrounded by sections of thorn to represent the crown worn by Jesus on the day of His crucifixion. Blocks of strip-pieced fabric are incorporated and intended to let the mind wander — are they roadblocks in our path or bits of God's love flowing in through our darkness? Are they a complex of responsibilities or foundations to follow Jesus' path? Narrow ribbons can be pathways as we make our way through difficult times, but they have intersections where we meet God through other people along the way.

Feel free to notify an usher if you would like a hearing assistance device.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

All may make the sign of the cross, the sign marked at baptism, as the presiding minister begins.

P Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God,
Who forgives all our sin, whose mercy endures forever.

C Amen.

P Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you and worthily magnify your holy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

C Amen.

Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and one another.

Please kneel as you are able. Silence is kept for reflection.

Most merciful God,

ctd. on next page...

C we confess that we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves.
 We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,
 by what we have done and by what we have left undone.
 We have not loved you with our whole heart;
 we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
 For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us.
 Forgive us, renew us, and lead us,
 so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways,
 to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

P God, who is rich in mercy, loved us even when we were dead in sin, and made us alive together with Christ. By grace you have been saved. In the name of † Jesus Christ, your sins are forgiven. Almighty God strengthen you with power through the Holy Spirit, that Christ may live in your hearts through faith.

C Amen.

COMMUNION

At Preston Meadow Lutheran, our communion table is "open." That means that you don't have to be a member of PMLC to commune, or even a Lutheran. We welcome children of all ages to this favorite meal of the church because we know that we come at Jesus' invitation to receive his free gift of grace. Parents, if your children are not yet communing, encourage them to fold their arms over their chests to receive a blessing. If you are communing, simply open your hands and bread will be given to you. Cups with white grape juice are located in the center of the trays; gluten-free wafers are available on request. Come and enjoy the free gifts of God!
