IRETON COMMUNITY INDEPENDENCE DAY WORSHIP SERVICE: Sunday, July 1 at 10:30 AM we will be joining in the park to worship with all the congregations in Ireton at our annual Independence Day worship service. This year the worship is led by the Lutheran congregation and a lunch following will be provided by the Reformed church.

IRETON COMMUNITY PIG ROAST IS A GO!! In an effort to get to know our neighbors better, love them more and strengthen our Ireton community we are planning a Community Pig Roast, Wednesday, July 11 at the Ireton Community Center. The meal itself will be held from 5-7 PM. There will be activities like bouncy castles, face painting and chalk drawing. The event will continue until dusk when we will be showing a movie. We will need some help serving the food and helping with the activities. A sign-up sheet is in the back of church where you can put down what you are willing to help with. Next week we will have invitations for everyone to bring to their neighbors to specifically invite them to be our guests at the pig roast.
