MINISTRY EXPO

What is the CTS MINISTRY EXPO?

Each year students from Kindergarten through 12th grade have the opportunity to participate in a Bible and music expo for Free Will Baptist churches in Missouri. Whether they sing, play an instrument, draw a picture, or memorize the Bible, the focus is to allow students to represent their church in a statewide youth competition. First place winners are given the chance to represent Missouri at the Vertical Three Conference each summer in conjunction with the National FWB Association Convention

What does CTS stand for?

Church Training Service

The CTS Ministry expo provides any opportunities for students to participate in activities that increase biblical knowledge, refine their God-given abilities, and practice for future church ministry.

Who hosts the CTS EXPO?

The EXPO is put on by the MOFWB Youth Ministries Board. The annual event is always in April. The location varies from year to year as the board looks for a church that has the space needed for the various students and their competition
