Leading the Circle Community:

“LET GO AND LET GOD”

This is a group for women who are interested in exploring the healing process connected to forgiveness, loss and grief.

Leader, CJ Rowland, is no stranger to leading in the context of small groups. She brings a lot of experience from many years of leading in the Celebrate Recovery community. CJ is inviting women to join her community and join in discussions that will support anyone who has ever experienced grief and loss or those wanting to work through forgiveness. CJ says, “I’m very much looking forward to the bond that is created when we share our burdens and the contented release that is witnessed when we see how God enters into the solution.”

What you’ll need for this Circle Community:

Some fun facts about CJ

- CJ thinks people would describe her as Calm, Real and open
- You might find CJ enjoying a day at the beach because she loves the beach ... but she’s afraid of the water.
- If she could only eat one food for the rest of her life CJ would choose fruit. But which fruit if she could only choose one?
- One item CJ has on her bucket list is to experience a hot air balloon ride
- CJ is an avid reader and loves watching movies. However she said she will rarely read a book more than once and the same goes for re-watching a movie.

One of CJ’s Favorite Scriptures:

Colossians 3:16

Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly.
