@ LSC Community Room

Leading the Circle Community: “Mess of Tangled Yarn”

This is a group for women of all ages who want to work through the tendencies of creating their own “mistaken identities” instead of seeing themselves as God does.

Leader, Jenn Paul is inviting women to be part of a group that will use video messages to remind all community members the importance of knowing who they are in Christ. The group will support and encourage each other as each woman works to see themselves in the way God sees them, identify their given gifts, confront body and image issues, manage seasons of depression and anxiety and let go of the perfectionism that can paralyze. Jenn says, “My hope is that those in the group will form a community of people who are comfortable speaking their truth, sharing their story and gaining strength and inspiration for one another and through our mutual faith and love of Jesus.” In addition, if you like to keep your hands busy while in discussions, you’re welcome to bring any yarn projects you’re working on ... but this is not a requirement of the group.

What you’ll need for this Circle Community:

Masks required. Bring a fiber arts project to work on if you’d like, but not required.

Some fun facts about Shannan

- Jenn believes people would describe her as loud, sarcastic, friendly.
- She has a love for books .. and really loves the smell of old books (she’s been caught book sniffing in public!).
- Tacos would be her choice of food if she could only eat one food for the rest of her life.
- Jenn would love to swim with dolphins and has that on her bucket list
- Shannan admits she’s read the book “Morning Glory” by LaVerle Spenser at least a dozen times and has about 6 copies of it.

One of Shannan’s Favorite Scriptures:

Philippians 4:6-7

Don’t worry about anything; instead, pray about everything. Tell God what you need, and thank him for all he has done. Then you will experience God’s peace, which exceeds anything we can understand. His peace will guard your hearts and minds as you live in Christ Jesus.
