Welcome, Guests!

Friends,

We are glad you are here with us and hope you sense God's presence in worship today. If there is any way we can be of help to you, don't hesitate to ask. Here are a few of the questions we often hear from our guests when they first visit:

- ~ How long is the worship service here at Faith? Our worship services typically run 60 to 70 minutes.
- ~ How can I introduce myself? We'd love to meet you after the service; don't hesitate to introduce yourself! You can also visit our webpage (www.faithpresby.org), and click on the "I'm New" tab and then the "Introduce Yourself" button. This is a great way to let the pastoral staff know who you are and how we might welcome and serve you.
- ~ I have kids. Are they welcome here? Absolutely! We love the sounds of children in the sanctuary. During the children's message in the service, kids up to 6th grade are invited to come up front to listen in. Having them stay with you to listen is also fine. After the children's message at the 9:00 a.m. service, children are invited down the hall to Room 4 (grades 3 to 6) and Room 5 (Pre-K to 2nd grade) with our children's staff. Nursery care is also available throughout the 9:00 a.m. service in Room 7.
- ~ Are there classes for adults? Yes. Check the bulletin and listen for announcements in worship about upcoming classes. We currently have in-person and online classes.
- ~ What if I have trouble hearing the service? If you have difficulty hearing, please ask one of our ushers for a personal receiver for the hearing impaired. Also, a T-Loop hearing-assist system is available in the back four pews on the right side of the sanctuary. Set your hearing aid to the "T" setting.
- ~ How can I find out more information about Faith? Feel free to speak to any of us and if we can't answer your questions, we'll find somebody who can. Our website is a great source of information: www.faithpresby.org. Also, This Week @ Faith is a weekly email that goes out on Mondays with information about upcoming opportunities and activities. Email Laura Anderson in our office at landerson@faithpresby.org if you'd like to be included on the email distribution list.
- ~ What if I'm interested in exploring membership or deeper involvement at Faith? If you'd like to know more about becoming a member at Faith, or want to understand how you can begin or continue to grow in your Christian faith, we encourage you to contact one of our pastors. You can call the church office at (916) 428-3439 or email one of our staff members. (Email addresses are available on our webpage and further on in this bulletin.) We'd love to meet you and find out how we can be of help.

Again, we are glad you are here with us today!

Grace and peace,

The People of Faith

Faith Presbyterian Church of Sacramento

New to Faith?

We'd like the chance to meet you!

If you are new to Faith Church, we would like to invite you to an informal reception so we can get to know you, and in turn you can get to know us. Our next Look @ Faith reception is next Sunday, November 24, at 10:15 a.m. in the Fireside Room.

The reception lasts about 30 minutes. You'll have the opportunity to get to know others who have been coming to Faith, meet some of our leadership, and learn a few things about what makes this congregation unique. You may have questions about this church or about the Christian faith, and that's great—feel free to ask! This is just an informal opportunity to get to know one another. Come join us! For more info, email Laura at landerson@faithpresby.org.

Opportunities to Learn & Connect

Sunday Morning Classes

“Ephesians 2024”: Living Hope in These Moments

November 10, 17, 24, December 8, 15, 22

10:15 to 11:15 a.m. in Link Hall

Facilitator: Rev. Rick Hull

To say that these are troubled times is a serious understatement. To say there is “hope” often sounds like a platitude. This is a time of bitterly contested national elections, of vitriolic divides in western cultures, of entrenched social needs and injustices, of vicious and evil “wars and rumors of wars.” And, the world that God created out of love is tragically broken.

It was 1,962 years ago when the Apostle Paul wrote a letter that has spoken to the hearts of believers in every generation since. And, in this moment, it is the contemporary hope we may draw on for 2024 and beyond. Join us as we listen together for that ancient voice speaking hope through the six chapters of “Ephesians 2024.”

Today, we’ll focus on Ephesians 1:1-23. For next Sunday, November 24, please read Ephesians 3 before class.

Note that the class location has been changed to Link Hall.

Extended One More Week! Eternity Is Now in Session

Wednesday, November 20

7:00 to 8:30 p.m. on Zoom

Facilitator: Alice Parente

Join us as we enjoy one more week of rich conversation about eternity! We’ll draw to a conclusion—at least for now—our consideration of John’s Gospel in tandem with John Ortberg’s book, Eternity Is Now in Session. We’ll also have the opportunity to further reflect upon the reality of “eternal living” with God, both in the here-and-now and in the life to come.

The Zoom link for the class will be included in tomorrow’s “This Week @ Faith” email.

PW November Fellowship

This Wednesday, November 20

11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

All women of Faith are warmly invited to Presbyterian Women’s November fellowship. Please note that this month’s meeting takes place a week earlier than usual—this Wednesday, November 20, from 11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. in Link Hall.

Check-in starts at 11:15 a.m.

This month PW is delighted to welcome the Eric Rainwater Children’s Choir, who will ease us into the holiday season with their beautiful voices!

There will also be time to catch up with one another over lunch and to hear from board members. There will be a raffle, and the bazaar table will be available for your donating/shopping pleasure.

Bring your lunch; drinks, chips and dessert will be provided.

PW December Fellowship

Wednesday, December 4, 11:30 a.m.

Lucky Jade Restaurant

PW’s Christmas luncheon will be held at 11:30 a.m. on Wednesday, December 4, at Lucky Jade Restaurant. The restaurant is located at 7007 South Land Park Drive, behind Bel Air on Florin Road.

Cost is $25.00 per person, including tax and tip (cash please). The menu will be provided at our November fellowship, and you may make your reservation there as well. Otherwise, the deadline to RSVP is Monday, November 25. (RSVP to Kathy Ellis—see contact info, below.) There will be door prizes, singing and delicious food. Come enjoy the festivities!

All Faith women are warmly invited to join us for these times of Christian friendship. To RSVP or for more information, contact Kathy Ellis at trvlkath@comcast.net or (916) 215-4997.

“Stay-at-Home” Retreat

Availability and Faith Life to an Effective Christian Living

A Study in Nehemiah 1-2

Friday to Sunday, November 22 to 24

Satish John is a Bible teacher and conference speaker who lives and ministers in India. He serves as the national director of Torchbearers in India as well as the chairman of the executive council of Torchbearers International. This November, we will have the unique opportunity to host him at a stay-at-home retreat right here at Faith.

Satish’s topic for the weekend will be “Availability and Faith Life to an Effective Christian Living.” Though many of us find it difficult to navigate our Christian lives in this busy and stressful world, we can learn a great deal from Nehemiah’s exemplary model. What would it be like if we were also able to nurture a faith in Christ that was marked by willingness, availability and flexibility? What opportunities might we see the Lord open up for us to serve, lead and encourage one another? Satish is an engaging speaker whose teaching and personal witness will no doubt challenge and encourage us all. If you know of others from outside Faith that you think will be blessed by this time, please feel free to invite them.

Satish’s teaching will be engaging for our youth, who are encouraged to attend the retreat. There will be special, similarly themed programs for younger children, as well as nursery care for Faith’s youngest members.

If you have not yet registered, now is the time! To help cover costs, there is a registration fee of $10 for adults and $5 for youth in 7th to 12th grades. There is no cost for children who are 6th graders or younger. You may register online using the QR code below, or you may pick up a retreat flyer with a registration form in the Welcome Center. Drop off the completed registration form, along with any registration fees, in the church office, or mail it in. Scholarships are available; speak with a pastor.

Please note that, to protect believers in places where the Church is persecuted, the retreat will not be livestreamed or recorded. Please plan to attend in person.

Here is the schedule for the weekend:

REACHING OUT Resource Fair

Special Information about Our December & January Events

Our combined November and December Reaching Out event will take place on Saturday, December 14, from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. And you are warmly invited to help us make this a festive and joyful occasion for all who will come to the fair!

In case you are not yet familiar with Reaching Out, it is an opportunity for us to offer a ministry of presence and helpful resources to those in our community who may be blessed by a little extra support offered in the name of Jesus. If you have never had the chance to be a part of Reaching Out, our December fair is a great time to join in as we share the meaning and spirit of Christmas with those who come—and they with us! Here are two ways you can participate:

First, join us in helping to provide hospitality to those who come. There are lots of different and meaningful ways to serve! You can come by yourself, or invite your whole Life Group. You'll find a direct link to a sign-up doc starting in the November 25th "This Week @ Faith" email.

Second, we are seeking the following donations in December:

- Gifts: new or gently used items that people can give as gifts
- Clothing for infants to teens: new socks, underwear and pajamas
- Items themed for Christmas/winter holidays: new or gently used books, ornaments, décor, etc.
- Pet toys, pet food and cat litter
- Toiletries & cleaning supplies: New, or opened but clean. For example, some people donate products that they opened but didn't use because they didn't like the smell.

We are also putting out the call for January donations now so that folks can take advantage of after-Christmas sales.

- For January: new socks; new or gently used jackets, mittens, blankets and small throws

Items may be placed in the SSIP bin in the narthex by 4:00 p.m. on Thursday, December 12.

Thank you for partnering with your Faith family as we share the joy of Christ with those who come on December 14. And ... do consider joining us! The mood will be festive, and even as you extend Christ's blessing to others, you will find yourself deeply blessed.

Advent Poinsettias

Each year for Advent, we decorate the sanctuary with poinsettias purchased in memory or in honor of loved ones. The Worship Team invites you to consider placing a sanctuary poinsettia this year.

Plants may be ordered in the narthex after worship today and next Sunday—November 17 and 24. Or, if you prefer, you may order online using the QR code above. Whether in person or online, the deadline to order is after 11:00 worship next Sunday, November 24.

Each plant is $10. Those purchasing a plant will be recognized in the December 8 bulletin. Poinsettias may be taken home after Christmas Eve worship service on Tuesday, December 24. Plants should be picked up by Sunday, January 5, after which they will be "rehommed."

Isaiah 6:1-8 (NRSV)

<sup>1</sup>In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. <sup>2</sup>Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. <sup>3</sup>And one called to another and said:

“Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts;
the whole earth is full of his glory.”

<sup>4</sup>The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. <sup>5</sup>And I said: “Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts!”

<sup>6</sup>Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. <sup>7</sup>The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: “Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out.” <sup>8</sup>Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?” And I said, “Here am I; send me!”

Questions to Consider...

The following questions and scriptures are provided for Life Groups and individuals who want to reflect further on today's message.

1. Would you want to meet God face to face in all his glory? Why or why not?
2. Read Isaiah 6:1-8 again. Imagine the scene as you read it. What is most striking? What stands out to you?
3. In this scene the Lord is revealing himself to Isaiah. What things do we learn about God here, about God's identity and character?
4. When was a time in your life when you have been in awe of the Lord, humbled by who God is?
5. Is it true that the closer one gets to God and his holiness and glory, the more one becomes aware of one's own sin? How have you seen this in your own life?
6. Jeff stated that in this passage we see both the transcendence (far-above-us-ness) of God and the immanence (so-near-us-ness) of God all at the same time. How do you perceive the Lord in relation to us? Nearby? Far off? Can the Lord be both at the same time?
7. Read the encounter of Peter with Jesus in Luke 5:1-11. What parallels do you see between this story and the story of Isaiah? What do we learn here about God?
8. Glory. Woe. Fire. Invitation. Go. Do you see these as the five movements of Isaiah's vision? How do you see these five movements rehearsed every week in our gathered worship?

Table to Table: Something for kids and adults to consider together.

How big is God?

Is it true that God holds the whole world in his hands?

How can this be?

Meeting With God This Week

To help you LISTEN to God...

As a follow-up to today's message and for your continued times of meeting with God, we offer the following passages from God's Word for your reflection. If you need a Bible, let us know and we'll give you one. We encourage you to keep a journal at hand to write down what you hear as you listen to God's Word. If you are new to all this, these steps may help you get started:

Invite - Find a time and space where you can have at least fifteen minutes of privacy and silence. Begin by taking a moment to simply ask God to meet you. Expect God to answer your prayer and show up.

Scripture - Read slowly through the passage for the day (we offer suggestions below). Read it again, if you like. Pay attention to phrases or ideas that particularly strike you.

Listen and Reflect - Use a journal to write down what you hear God saying in these verses. What is God telling you about himself? What is God telling you about your life? What is God telling you he wants you to do or to do differently? What questions are raised? What promises are revealed? Write what you hear.

Respond - Use the 3 R's. #1 - Rejoice! What have I heard from God which causes me to praise God and give thanks? Pray accordingly. #2—Repent. What have I heard from God that brings to light sin in my life or change that needs to take place? #3—Request. What have I heard from God that informs the way I pray for myself and others? (The guide in the column to the right, "To Help You Speak with God," may be useful as you pray for others this week.)
