The Grace Course will be offered at church Sunday evenings. The videos are on Right Now Media. Here is a description from the website: Grace is not behavior modification, it's learning to rest in His promised love. Discover how grace frees you from: joyless religion, a low-grade fever of guilt, being defined by your past, feeling unable to say no, thinking you're not enough. In this powerful eight-week video series, you will encounter God's grace like never before. Materials need to be ordered so if you are interested, please talk with Sue Vander Kooj 519-546-2558.

An Opportunity to Serve - The CRCNA is looking for nominees willing to serve as At-Large members of the Council of Delegates and the Canada Ministry Board. The Council of Delegates acts as the interim governing body of the CRCNA, providing governance and oversight of the denomination's ministries and activities between our annual Synods. The Canada Ministry Board provides governance and oversight of the work of the Canadian Ministries. If you have skills and expertise in board governance and a heart for the CRCNA, or know of someone who does, we invite you to complete this nomination form (<https://bit.ly/COD-nominations>).

Thrive Faith Formation Tip - Galatians 3:28 reminds us of the profound unity we share as believers in Christ, regardless of our backgrounds or perceived differences. As members of God's diverse yet unified family, we are called to live into the vision proclaimed in this verse. This week, as we commemorate the birthday of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.—a faithful advocate of this very vision—consider how you and your family or friends might actively embrace and embody this unity by building relationships with families of different racial and cultural backgrounds.
