After listening to the three interviews, which of the evidences are most compelling to you and why?

Tuesday
Peter had the right confession about Jesus long before his actions consis tently reflected his beliefs. Genuine conviction is more than knowing th e right answers; it's allowing what we believe to shape how we live. Where is there a disconnect between what you believe about Jesus and how you're living?

Wednesday
Read on to discovered how Peter continued to be changed by Jesus. Acts 5:40-42. The same Peter who once denied Jesus publicly was now rejoicing that he was counted worthy to suffer for His name. What fear or competing desire is keeping you from boldly following Jesus?

Thursday
Jesus doesn't become Lord when we acknowledge Him; He already reig ns whether we recognize His authority or not. Following Jesus means m oving beyond simply celebrating Him to willingly surrendering every are a of our lives to His leadership. What area of your life are you still attempting to control rather than surrender to Jesus?

Friday
The three thousand people who responded to Peter's message didn't si mply add a new belief to their lives; they embraced an entirely new way of living through worship, community, prayer, and generosity. Salvation isn't the finish line of the Christian life but the beginning of a lifelong tr ansformation through the power of the Holy Spirit. Where might the Lord be leading you to take a next step be at Canopy Roads?
