DAILY DEVOTIONS FOR THIS WEEK

Monday: Read Luke 8:4-15. Here Jesus compares a farmer sowing seed to a person sharing the gospel. How do the four kinds of soil represent the receptivity of four kinds of people? Farmers may plant some seeds in poor soil, but they look for and invest more effort in farming good soil. How might you find lost people who are like "good soil"? What would you look for? How might Living SENT help your search?

Tuesday: Read John 5:19-30. In verses 19 and 30, what did Jesus say that he could not do? Does that surprise you? What did He say in v. 19 that He could do? Followers of Jesus should follow His example. We should look for God at work around us and join Him when we see it. Ask God to open your eyes to see Him at work so that you can join Him. Notice the one verse gospel presentation in 5:24. How would you share the gospel?

Wednesday: Read John 6:44 and Romans 3:10-12. What does it tell you about what God is doing when you see a lost person seeking God? Based on John 5:19 from yesterday, what should you do? What evidence indicates that someone is a seeker? (Luke 5:27-32; 19:1-10; Acts 10:1-8) Ask God to bring a seeker into your life or help you see who is already seeking.

Thursday: Do you know how to share your salvation testimony? Read how Paul shared his in Acts 22:1-15 and 26:9-20. His testimony had four parts: his life before Christ, how he realized he needed Christ, how he became a follower of Jesus, what his life is like since he became a believer. Using this four-part outline write a few sentences for each part to compose your story of salvation. Practice sharing your story with a friend. Now you are ready to share it with an unbeliever.

Friday: How would you share the gospel with someone? Here are two simple ways. Go to YouTube and search for: 3 Circles Gospel Presentation and Bridge Illustration of salvation. Watch a couple of examples of each and learn one or both. Make it yours by using your own words. Practice it with a friend or two. Then ask God to point you to a seeker who needs to hear it. Ask God to give you boldness to share.
