

“There’s No Place Like Home”

Series: Come to the Table:

The Hospitality of God

Luke 4:14-30

PAQs (Personal Application Questions)

February 3, 2019

1. What do you like best about the hometown where you grew up? What do you like least? How did it welcome outsiders?
2. What is Jesus’ five-fold mission (vv.18-19)?
3. The phrase “to let the oppressed go free” (v. 18) is an allusion to Isaiah 58:6-9. What echoes in that passage may Jesus be wanting us to hear?
4. What claims is Jesus making about himself in this story?
5. Why do the townspeople get so angry at Jesus?
6. Where do you see hospitality in this story? Where do you see in-hospitality?
7. How have you experienced God’s hospitality?
8. What might hospitality toward others look like in light of this passage.

“There’s No Place Like Home”

Series: Come to the Table:

The Hospitality of God

Luke 4:14-30

PAQs (Personal Application Questions)

February 3, 2019

1. What do you like best about the hometown where you grew up? What do you like least? How did it welcome outsiders?
2. What is Jesus’ five-fold mission (vv.18-19)?
3. The phrase “to let the oppressed go free” (v. 18) is an allusion to Isaiah 58: 6-9. What echoes in that passage may Jesus be wanting us to hear?
4. What claims is Jesus making about himself in this story?
5. Why do the townspeople get so angry at Jesus?
6. Where do you see hospitality in this story? Where do you see in-hospitality?
7. How have you experienced God’s hospitality?
8. What might hospitality toward others look like in light of this passage?

