

Gail is a native Texan, having lived in Pampa, Big Spring, Denver City and Lubbock. She is married to Max, and has 2 children, Jeremy & Amy, and new son in love, Kyle! Gail attended West Texas A & M for 2 years, then transferred and graduated from Texas Tech with a bachelor's degree in Business Education in 1984.

Gail has been a member of Bacon Heights since 1982, and has been involved in many ministries of the church, including Parent's Day Out, Bible Drill, children's Sunday school, Adult SUMMIT group director, and served as the WMU director for several years, overseeing RA's, GA's and Baptist Young Women. Currently, Gail serves as the Women's Ministry leader. She joined the office staff in 1995 as Education assistant, became the Pastor's Assistant in 1998, and is now serving as Administrator.

Gail's hobbies include gardening and managing the pack of dogs at home. If you don't know, she bleeds "black and red" as evidenced by this amazing chain saw carving in her front yard.
